JEFFRIES-JOHNSON FIGHT PICTURES

Heads of Connecticut Cities and Boroughs Urged to Enforce Prohibiting Ordinances.

VIEWS OF GOV. FRANK B. WEEKS

Policy of this State is Against Exhibitions Known as Prize Fights-Moving Pictures of the Fight are Much More Objectionable and Should be Prevented-Suggestion to Proper Authorities and a Personal Request

Hartford, Conn., July 7 .- That the Boston Epworth League Adopts a Propolicy of the state was against the displaying of moving pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson fight was expressed by Governor Frank B. Weeks in a form statement issued by him tonight. The so enforce ordinances which will pro-hibit their being shown.

Statement by Governor Weeks.

The statement follows:
The policy of the state of Connecticut is against exhibitions known as prize fights. The statutes of the state provide a maximum penalty of five years imprisonment for any person who is principal or second in a prize fight and a line and imprisonment for known that moving pictures of the recent fight between Johnson and Jeff-ries are intended to be publicly ex-hibited as a source of profit and unless will be so exhibited in this

A Demoralizing Exhibition.

"If it is against public morals and decency to have prize fights in our state, in my opinion the public exhibition in the state of moving pictures of a prize fight would be much more objectionable than the fight itself, because it would reach and demoralize a cause it would reach and demoralize a much larger class of individuals, in-cluding children; and the exhibition attended with other features which

The chief has enemies in the department but he has also strong backing with the chamber of commerce the little less than a year.

The mayor said tonight that Chief Croker had invited the investigation by his criticism of the work men under him had done and that the inquiry had been instituted to find out if those charges were true.

"There has been no suggestion of removing Mr. Croker." continued the mayor. "Commissioner Waldo has made no suggestion of charges against him. He is regarded as a good fireman, but there has got to be an administrative head of the fire department, and only one and there will be as long as I am mayor."

Death from Double Pneumonia.

The remains of Thomas P. Murphy arrived here on Thursday morning from Batavia, N. Y., where he was removed from the train after his death while on his way home to this city. It was learned that his death was caused by acute double pneumonia. Mr. Murphy held a fine position in the central office of the Western Union in Chicago. He was a skillful operator and was most favorably known in this his home city. He had in years past conducted brokers offices besides being Western Union operator and an employe of the Associated Press. sale of the splendid collection of porcelain and other art objects which belonged to the late Baron Schroder was held yesterklay at Christie's.

Five snuffboxes all superb examples of eighteenth century work, brought over $70,000. Two others brought $20,000 each.

One of these latter was a snuffbox of the Louis XV, period, oval in-shape, the cover, sides and base set with six miniatures painted on gouache (water body color) with Boucher subjects of nymphs bathing and sporting with dolphine, by Charlier. The borders of the box are of gold chased with narrow bands of formal leafage.

The other was a Louis XVI. oval gold snuffbox with somewhat similar for a trip down the St. Law-
